

Applicable Corporate Governance standards

This Corporate Governance disclosure reflects the requirements of the Directive on Information Relating to Corporate Governance, issued by the SIX Swiss Exchange as amended on October 29, 2008. The principles and the more detailed rules of Adecco S.A.'s Corporate Governance are defined in Adecco S.A.'s Articles of Incorporation, its Internal Policies and Organisational Rules, and in the Charters of the Committees of the Board of Directors. Adecco S.A.'s principles take into account the recommendations set out in the Swiss Code of Best Practice for Corporate Governance as amended on September 6, 2007.

Additionally, on November 20, 2013, the Swiss Federal Council approved the final Ordinance Against Excessive Compensation at Listed Corporations (the "Ordinance") which entered into force on January 1, 2014. The Ordinance was issued to implement the key elements of the so-called Minder-Initiative, a constitutional amendment approved by the Swiss electorate in March 2013.

The Ordinance is applicable to listed companies with registered office in Switzerland and introduces a number of new obligations and requirements such as (i) the individual and yearly election of the members of the Board of Directors, the Chairman, the members of the remuneration committee and the independent proxy agent by the shareholders, (ii) the amendment of the Articles of Incorporation, (iii) the content of the Remuneration Report, (iv) an annual binding say of the shareholders on the compensation of the members of the Board of Directors and of the Executive Committee and (v) provisions regarding employment terms. The Ordinance forbids certain compensation payments (such as severance payments) and obliges pension funds to exercise their voting rights and to disclose their voting behaviour. Non-compliance with the provisions of the Ordinance may entail criminal sanctions.

As Adecco has in the past years already conducted annual (re-)elections of the members of the Board of Directors, the only amendments as a result of the Ordinance are the elections by the shareholders of the Chairman, of the members of the compensation committee and of the independent proxy at the Annual General Meeting 2014. At this occasion, Adecco will also submit the necessary amendments of the Articles of Incorporation to the vote of its shareholders. At the Annual General Meeting 2015, the Board of Directors of Adecco will submit compensation of itself for the office period April 2015 to April 2016, and of the Executive Committee for 2016 to its shareholders for approval annually in a prospective binding vote.

Statements throughout this Corporate Governance disclosure using the term "the Company" refer to the Adecco Group, which comprises Adecco S.A., a Swiss corporation, its consolidated subsidiaries, as well as variable interest entities for which Adecco is considered the primary beneficiary.

Upon such declaration, any person or entity will be registered with the right to vote.

The Board of Directors may register nominees with the right to vote in the share register to the extent of up to 5% of the registered share capital as set forth in the Commercial Register. Registered shares held by a nominee that exceed this limit may be registered in the share register if the nominee discloses the names, addresses, and the number of shares of the persons for whose account it holds 0.5% or more of the registered share capital as set forth in the Commercial Register. Nominees within the meaning of this provision are persons who do not explicitly declare in the request for registration to hold the shares for their own account or with whom the Board of Directors has entered into a corresponding agreement (refer to Art. 4 sec. 3 of the Articles of Incorporation; Internet: www.aoi.adecco.com). 2.7 Convertible notes and options

Information provided in this section is in millions, except share and per share information.

The Company issued in the past stock option plans whereby employees and members of the Board of Directors received options to purchase shares. No stock options under these plans were granted after 2004. The purpose of the plans was to furnish incentives to selected employees and members of the Board of Directors, to encourage employees to continue employment with the Company, and to align the interests of selected employees and directors with those of the shareholders. Upon exercise of stock options, Adecco S.A. may deliver either shares from its conditional capital, of which up to 4,166,804 shares are reserved for this purpose, or from its treasury shares. The Nomination & Compensation Committee was responsible for making proposals, based upon the recommendations of the Executive Committee, to the Board of Directors regarding the individuals to whom options were granted, the size of the option grant for each optionee, the conditions, the exercise price, and the grant date. The Board of Directors had to approve all the option grants as well as the conditions thereof. The exercise price for one share was generally fixed at or above the fair market value at the date of grant. Depending on the conditions of the plans, options vested with certain waiting periods of up to five years, and are subsequently exercisable over a number of years. All options may be exercised at any time within the exercise period except for limitations set forth in the Company's Insider Trading Statement of Policy and by regulatory authorities. The Board of Directors may modify, amend, suspend, or discontinue the plans.

The summary of the status of the stock options held based on above-mentioned plans as of December 31, 2013 is as follows:

	Number of shares	Weighted-average exercise price per share (in CHF)	Weighted-average remaining life (in years)	Aggregate intrinsic value (in CHF millions)
